Dear Dr. DeCosmo:

Thank you for your letter to Senator Baker inviting him to address the Commencement Ceremony at Delaware County Community College on May 26, 1988.

I hope you'll understand that a definite answer this far in advance is not possible. If you would like to send a follow-up invitation closer to the date of the event, we will be happy to give it every consideration.

With Senator Baker's best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Ed:

I appreciate the memorandum from you and Tom Korologos about the President delivering the luncheon speech at the conference of the United States Advisory Commission on Public Diplomacy at the State Department.

The President is interested in making this address. However, we would like to include this on his schedule for Wednesday morning, September 16, 1987 at approximately 11:15. Please let me know if this works out satisfactorily with your program.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Herr:

Senator Baker has asked me to respond to your message concerning your unsuccessful search for work in the Nashville area.

Mr. Baker was sorry to learn of your continuing unemployment and he can fully understand the difficulties you are undergoing. We would urge you to keep in mind the importance of establishing and maintaining contact with a local job placement staff. Job listings are frequently updated to reflect current openings, and the job service staff will be able to advise you on local developments with far greater accuracy than is possible from Washington.

Please know that you have Senator Baker's best wishes for every future success.

Dear Mr. Keen:

Thank you for your message expressing support for the President's nomination of Judge Robert H. Bork to the position of Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

President Reagan believes Judge Bork to be a man of the highest integrity and qualification as well as an eloquent and powerful advocate of judicial restraint, a philosophy whose guiding principle is that it is the legislature's role to enact laws and the court's role to interpret them.

In making the nomination, the President stated:

Judge Bork is recognized as a premier Constitutional authority. His outstanding intellect and unrivaled scholarly credentials are reflected in his thoughtful examination of the broad, fundamental, legal issues of our times. . . . We're fortunate to be able to draw upon such an impressive legal mind; an experienced judge and a man who already has devoted so much of his life to public service. He'll bring credit to the Court and his colleagues, as well as to his country and the Constitution.

The American Bar Association gave Judge Bork its highest rating -- "exceptionally well qualified" -- when he was confirmed by the Senate as an Appellate Judge in 1982. President Reagan is confident that the current Senate confirmation process will be equally successful and he looks forward to Judge Bork beginning a long and distinguished career as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Again, thank you for writing. Please accept my best wishes.

Dear Claude:

Thank you for your letter of June 24 recommending that President Bongo of Gabon be extended an invitation for an official visit to the United States.

As one of Africa's longest-serving leaders, President Bongo has guided his country on a pro-Western, moderate course which has brought Gabon political stability and relative economic prosperity. For this and other reasons, we consider Gabon to be an important ally in the region. In recognition of this fact, Maureen Reagan, during a recent trip to Libreville, extended to President Bongo an invitation for an official Washington visit. As you are probably aware, President Bongo accepted, and met with President Reagan at the White House on July 31.

Dear Carol:

Thank you for your letter of July 21. Since the date of your letter we have made progress in negotiating a more reasonable bill. Congress appears willing to increase the amount of recapitalization of the FSLIC to $10.8 billion. We would have preferred a simple bill that provided the estimated $15 billion necessary to address fully the problems in the S&L industry.

However, because of the problems in the industry you cited in your letter, some of the President's advisors recommend that he sign the compromise. I would hope that this can occur before the upcoming August recess of the Congress.

Thank you again for sharing your views; I appreciate having the benefit of your informed judgment, and I look forward to hearing from you again.

Dear Dr. Kirk:

Thank you for your message concerning the President's decision to nominate Judge Robert Bork to be an Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. I am glad that you are pleased with this choice and that you think so highly of Judge Bork. As I am sure you are aware, Judge Bork has frequently noted the degree to which his own general philosophy has been influenced by the writings of Edmund Burke, and I have enclosed the text of an address Judge Bork delivered which, I think you will agree, reflects this influence.

Judge Bork is an eminent scholar and jurist, and he will make an absolutely superb Supreme Court Justice. Thank you again for writing to express your support for this nomination.

Dear Mr. Loeser:

Thank you for your letter of July 21 regarding H.R. 27. Since the date of your letter we have made progress in negotiating a somewhat more reasonable bill. We continue to prefer a simple recapitalization of the FSLIC, but the Congress is not so inclined. Given the state of the S&L industry, some of the President's advisors recommend that he sign the compromise.

I share your concern about the lack of more comprehensive legislation restructuring the financial services industry. I hope that something will occur between now and next March when the moratorium expires. If not, an attempt to extend the moratorium will be easier to deter when it is not part of the essential FSLIC legislation.

I know from firsthand experience that the United States cannot afford to ignore these issues any longer. While the markets, both here and abroad, may eventually force a resolution, it will not occur with the speed or orderly transition that comprehensive legislation could provide. In the interim, U.S. capital markets may suffer.

I hope that the many participants in the financial services industry could begin to reach some accommodation among themselves so that the Congress does not feel compelled to simply perpetuate the status quo.

Dear Ms. Jordan:

Thank you for your letter inviting me to meet with a distinguished group of New York executives on October 9.

I will not be in New York at that time and, regrettably, the heavy demands of my schedule will prevent me from meeting with you on that day. I do, however, send my best wishes for your continued success.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Mike:

Thank you for your gracious letter. I appreciate your words of encouragement and am honored that you have asked me to address your special meeting on October 13.

Regrettably, the heavy demands of my schedule have forced me to decline your kind invitation. Please know, however, that you have my best wishes for a successful meeting.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

Dear Ned:

Thank you for your letter inviting me to address the graduation ceremony on May 7, 1988. I am glad to hear that you are doing so well at Rhodes College.

I hope you'll understand that a definite answer this far in advance is not possible. If you would like to send a follow-up invitation closer to the date of the event, we'll be happy to see what we can do at that time.

Warm regards.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

Dear Harold:

Thanks for your note.

I would very much like to meet with you -- however, I will not be in Washington on August 17 or 18. Please let me know when you're next in town, and I hope we'll be able to set up something at that time.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

Dear Tom:

Thank you for your letter inviting me to address the Tennessee Gas Association's annual convention on May 13, 1988.

Although it is too far in advance for any decision at this point, I will be happy to see what we can do if you could send a follow-up invitation closer to the date of the event. Lura Nell Mitchell on my staff will be glad to help you out on this.

Joy and I send our best wishes,

Sincerely,
